YOUNG PLAYERS WIN APPLAUSE

Every seat in the Butler theatre was sold last night for the performance of "My Irish Rose" by the young players of Tonopah High School who covered themselves with glory and won unstinted applause by their excellent interpretation of the play. The dialogue was sprightly and kept the audience in the best of humor with several very telling situations involving sparkling repartee that was ably handled by the young thespians.

The cast of characters showed a wide range of ability due to the discriminating sense of Miss Ruth Murray, instructor in English, who succeeded in placing the parts in the care of a very talented company. The action was rapid and the curtain went up exactly at the minute announced for beginning the performance. The students were alert and the rendition of their respective parts reflected the interest taken in rehearsing which paved the way for a performance that went through without a single hitch.

The music was furnished by Mrs. Max Townsend Hobson, Guido Helwig and William Logan. The cast included the following: Letitia Sawie, Frank Pearson, Earl Rogers, Chris Sherrin, Verda Lane, William Maud, William Sawie, Irene Mitchell, Andrew Thland, Oscar Monahan and Mardock McLeod.

After the performance the players were treated to ice cream and cake served by the pituit.
